Service of Statutory Notices

Dreweatt Neate and Berrys delivering Project and Property Management across the country

What can we do for you?

Entry and acquisition of land can be undertaken by negotiation, or, in many cases by the service of a relevant Notice governed by the appropriate Acts of Parliament.

Service of notices within the correct and relevant time frame is crucial to avoid delays and costs arising from access denial and subsequent ransom situations.

- Liaison with respective legal departments to confirm and serve statutory notices where appropriate.
- Confirmation of land ownership with Land Registry, landowners, tenants and licensee's.
- Collation of information showing affected parties and their specific interest in the land affected.

- Production of schedules of names and addresses of affected parties, their agents and legal representatives produced as both a tabular and geographic database.
- Liaison with respective legal departments to confirm and serve statutory notices where appropriate.
